THE SOUTH-CAROLINA AND COUNTRY GAZETTE; JOURNAL.

Containing the freſheſt Advices, both Foreign and Domeſtic.

TUESDAY, MAY 22, 1770.

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE.

THE humble Addreſs of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, preſented to his Majeſty on Friday the twenty-third day of March, 1770.

Die Jovis, 22° Martii, 1770.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons of Great-Britain, in Parliament aſſembled, having taken into conſideration the Addreſs lately preſented to your Majeſty under the title of "The Humble Addreſs, Remonſtrance, and Petition, of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Livery, of the city of London, in Common Hall aſſembled," together with the Anſwer which your Majeſty was pleaſed to make to the ſame; think ourſelves indiſpenſibly obliged, upon this occaſion, to expreſs to your Majeſty the extreme concern and indignation, which we feel, at finding that an application has been made to your Majeſty, in terms ſo little correſponding with that grateful and affectionate reſpect which your Majeſty is ſo juſtly intitled to from all your Subjects; at the ſame time aſperſing and calumniating one of the branches of the Legiſlature, and expreſsly denying the legality of the preſent Parliament, and the validity of its proceedings.

To preſent Petitions to the Throne, has at all times been the undoubted Right of the Subjects of this Realm. The free enjoyment of that Right was one of the many bleſſings reſtored by the Revolution, and continued to us, in its fulleſt extent, under the Princes of your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Houſe: and as we are duly ſenſible of its value and importance, it is with the deepeſt concern that we now ſee the exerciſe of it ſo groſly perverted, by being applied to the purpoſe, not of preſerving, but of overturning the Conſtitution, and of propagating doctrines, which, if generally adopted, muſt be fatal to the peace of the Kingdom, and which tend to the ſubverſion of all lawful authority.

Your Majeſty we acknowledge with gratitude, has ever ſhewn the moſt tender regard to the Rights of your People, not only in the exerciſe of your own power, but in your care to preſerve from every degree of infringment or violation the powers intruſted to others. And we beg leave to return your Majeſty our unfeigned thanks for the freſh proof you have now given us, of your determination to perſevere in your adherence to the principles of the Conſtitution.

Permit us alſo to aſſure your Majeſty, that it is with the higheſt ſatisfaction we ſee your Majeſty expreſſing ſo juſt a confidence in your People. In whatever unjuſtifiable exceſſes ſome few miſguided perſons may in this inſtance have been ſeduced to join, your Majeſty's Subjects in general are too ſenſible of what they owe both to your Majeſty and to your illuſtrious Family, ever to be capable of approaching your Majeſty with any other ſentiments than thoſe of the moſt entire reſpect and affection; and they underſtand too well their own true intereſts to wiſh to looſen the bands of obedience to the Laws, and of due ſubordination to lawful Authority. We are therefore fully perſuaded that your Majeſty's People, as well as your Parliament, will reject with diſdain every inſidious ſuggeſtion of thoſe ill-deſigning men, who are in reality undermining the Public Liberty, under the ſpecious pretence of zeal for its preſervation; and that your Majeſty's attention to maintain the Liberties of your Subjects inviolated, which you eſteem your chief glory, will upon every occaſion prove the ſure means of ſtrength to your Majeſty, and ſecure to you that zealous and effectual ſupport, which none but a free People can beſtow.

His MAJESTY's moſt gracious ANSWER.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I Return you my thanks for this very loyal and dutiful Addreſs. It is with great ſatisfaction that I receive from my Parliament ſo grateful an acknowledgement of my tender regard for the Rights of my Subjects. Be aſſured, that I ſhall continue to adhere to the true Principles of our excellent Conſtitution; from which I cannot deviate, without juſtly forfeiting the affections of a free People.

LONDON, MARCH 26.

THE Earl of Hillſborough had a long conference with his Majeſty, on Friday morning, at St. James's, on the ſubject of ſome recent advices from America.

Saturday ſeveral Lords and Gentlemen of the Minority had a long conference with the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, at his Lordſhip's houſe in Soho Square, on affairs of importance.

It is reported that the Merchants and principal inhabitants of the city have reſolved to addreſs his Majeſty, in terms of the higheſt reſpect and attachment, as ſoon as the Houſe of Commons have gone thro' the conſideration of the Remonſtrance.

It is alſo ſaid that ſeveral gentlemen, making a great majority of the Corporation and Livery of London, will join the merchants in addreſſing his Majeſty.

A gentleman lately arrived in town from Carthagena ſays, that in that harbour are ſeveral firſt rate men of war, beſides frigates, ready to put to ſea at a few hours notice. The ſame gentleman ſays, he was aſſured, that in every other port of Spain there were men of war and frigates, all well manned, and ready for immediate ſervice.

Letters from Vienna contradict the reports in ſome of the foreign prints, that the court of Iſpahan had commenced hoſtilities againſt the Turks; on the contrary, a treaty of friendſhip is actually concluding between the Perſians and Grand Signior.

By various accounts from the eaſt, it appears, that, by the barbarities already practiſed by the Turks upon the Greeks, and other conquered people under the Turkiſh dominion, and the dread of much greater ſufferings from the rage and reſentment the ſucceſs the Ruſſian arms may occaſion, they are ready in almoſt every place to revolt and riſe againſt their oppreſſors.

The above-mentioned circumſtances having been foreſeen by the Ruſſian Miniſtry, they have taken all the neceſſary meaſures to avail themſelves of them, in the expedition of their fleet into the Mediterranean, by furniſhing arms and other military requiſites, to enable the inhabitants of the Greek iſlands, and countries lying near the coaſt of the Archipelago to withſtand the power of their preſent tyrannical government.

The States of Sweden, before their laſt ſeparation, paſſed a vote, for making particular examination into the preſent ſtate of their marine, and the adminiſtration of the finances appropriated to that department. This examination, with the ſcrutiny making into the ſtate of their fortreſſes, and the regulation of the military, under General Erbenfward, who commanded during the laſt war; but above all joined to the conſideration of the treaty lately concluded by them with France, and the arrears of the ſubſidies ſhortly to be paid them by the latter, renders it extremely probable, that the peace of Europe may ſpeedily be diſturbed, and the Swedes, as uſual, will be made principal actors in it, on the ſide of his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty.

They write from Geneva, that the natives of that city have refuſed to take the new oath of fidelity, which the council have thought proper to tender to them ſince the late inſurrection; and in conſequence of this refuſal, they have determined to leave the city, as without a compliance, they cannot enjoy the privileges formerly granted to them.

It is reported, that a celebrated banker from Bruſſels is now in London, endeavouring to obtain from the relations of the unfortunate Duke of St. Alban's, who has for ſome years been a priſoner at Bruſſels, a ſum of money to ſatisfy his Flemiſh creditors, and to obtain his diſcharge, which humane commiſſion is likely to be attended with ſucceſs, and at length, for the honour of his family, this long exiled peer will be reſtored to his native country and his dignity.

MARCH 27. Saturday a great number of extra caulkers and riggers were taken into pay at Portſmouth, to expedite the fitting out ſeveral men of war.

They write from Paris, that the Abbe Terray has made ſuch a progreſs in contracting the national expences in the departments ſuſceptible of economy, that he has already made a ſaving of four millions.

It is reported that ſome of the Ruſſian fleet are arrived at the iſland of Chio, in the Archipelago.

MARCH 28. Yeſterday morning ſome diſpatches of importance arrived at the Right Hon. the Earl of Hillſborough's office, Secretary of State for the Plantations, from his Excellency William Woodley, Eſq; commander in chief of the Britiſh Leeward Caribbe iſlands in the Weſt-Indies.

Yeſterday ſome diſpatches, ſaid to be of importance, arrived in town from the Earl of Harcourt, his Majeſty's Ambaſſador at Paris, which were immediately carried to the Secretary's office.

Yeſterday morning Count de Chatelet Lomand, the French Ambaſſador, had a long conference with the Earl of Weymouth on the ſubject of recent diſpatches from his court.

It is poſitively aſſerted, that this day Edward Thurlow, Eſq; will kiſs hands on being appointed his Majeſty's Sollicitor General.

It is reported that the duty on teas, as well as on other goods ſent to America, will be taken off; the duty it now pays will be collected in a different mode, which will be agreeable to all parties.

The Weſtminſter Remonſtrance is ſaid to be very ſpirited, and by thoſe who have ſeen it, to be very well drawn up.

The Turks ſeem to be ſo little diſcouraged by their ill ſucceſs in the laſt campaign, that notwithſtanding the deſtruction of their army on the banks of the Neſter, the taking of their towns, and the diſappointments which they every where met with, they ſhew not the leaſt inclination for peace. On the contrary the Grand Signior having held a great Divan at Conſtantinople, to have their advice, whether he ſhould make peace with the Chriſtians, or continue the war, all the members unanimouſly declared for war: and by a letter written by the Caimacan of Conſtantinople to the Seraſkier of the Morea, it appears, that the Turks are drawing together the whole ſtrength of their empire, to oppoſe the Ruſſians; which however, will probably but add to their confuſion, and facilitate their overthrow, unleſs their arms be conducted with greater ſkill and courage than they have manifeſted hitherto.

They write from Legborn, that a prodigious number of trees, proper for ſhip-building, have lately been cut down in Corſica, and were exporting with all convenient ſpeed to the ports of Marſeillet and Toulon.

Extract of a Letter from Genoa, Feb. 17.

"The laſt letters from Spain mention, that a revolution has happened at Liſbon, but no particulars have as yet tranſpired."

The Tweed frigate, now lying at Chatham, is ordered to be got ready with all expedition for his Excellency the Earl of Dunmore, in order to carry his Lordſhip to his government of New-York, for which he intends to embark in a few days.

MARCH 29. Yeſterday, at twelve o'clock, there was a very numerous meeting of the Electors of Weſtminſter, according to a previous notice advertiſed for that purpoſe.

Sir Robert Bernard took the chair, which was placed on the upper ſtep of the Court of Common Pleas, about twelve o'clock, attended by Dr. Willſon, ----- Sonnell, Eſq; Mr. Martyn, Mr. Churchill, and a number of gentlemen from the Standard Tavern, where they had a previous meeting. Mr. Martyn opened the aſſembly by acquainting the freeholders, that he had in his hand a Petition, Remonſtrance, and Addreſs to his Majeſty for a redreſs of grievances, which was agreed to by the Chairman, and Committee of the Electors of Weſtminſter, and hoped it would likewiſe meet with their concurrence. Upon which the Chairman got up, and aſked, "Whether it was their pleaſure it ſhould be read." On the general cry of "read, read," Mr. Martyn read it with a proper emphaſis and audibility. The ſubject of the Remonſtrance contained little more in ſubſtance than that lately preſented by the Livery of London, except the laſt article, which could not be then mentioned, as the cauſe has ſince taken place. It is to the following purpoſe.

"That as his M-----y was graciouſly pleaſed to ſignify to the Remonſtrants of the City of London, "That he would always be ready to hear the complaints of his people, and willing to redreſs them;" that they, the Electors of Weſtminſter, depending on his Royal word, now claimed that redreſs; and therefore requeſted of his M-----y, that, as a very eſſential part of the rights of the people were taken away by the authority exerted by the H---- of C----s chuſing a repreſentative of their own inſtead of accepting one choſen by them; that to reſtore the conſtitution to its original ſtate, his M-----y would be pleaſed to diſſ--ve the p---t P-------t."

This Remonſtrance being nem. con. agreed to, by the holding up of hands, Mr. Martyn made a motion, which was ſeconded by Mr. Connelly, that the Chairman and Committee ſhould ſign it, in behalf of the whole, and immediately wait on his M-----y to know when he would be pleaſed to receive it. This motion was likewiſe univerſally aſſented to; and the buſineſs of the day was conducted with great order and unanimity, and an addreſs of thanks voted to Sir Robert Bernard, Bart. the Chairman, for his great care and attention to the intereſts of the Electors of Weſtminſter in particular, and to the good of the conſtitution in general.

After which the Committee appointed to preſent the Remonſtrance to the King went from the Horn tavern to St. James's in proceſſion; and it being levee day, they were admitted, when Sir Robert Bernard preſented the Remonſtrance; to which his M----y gave no anſwer, but gave it to the Lord in waiting.

There were upwards of five thouſand perſons preſent to-day in Weſtminſter-Hall, when Mr. Boyle addreſſed himſelf to the inhabitants, and informed them they might attend the Committee at St. James's, but recommended to them to preſerve good order, and they all attended accordingly.

The conſideration of the ſtate of the nation is not to come on till to morrow, and on Monday the conſequences of expulſion will, as it is ſaid, certainly be determined on.

Copies of the Commiſſions of Earl Loudon, Sir Jeffery Amherſt, and General Gage, as Commanders in Chief in North-America, with the Commiſſion of Francis Bernard, Eſq; Governor of Maſſachuſetts-Bay, are ſaid to be making out.

Copies are ſaid to be preparing of the ſeveral meſſages and anſwers that paſſed between the Houſe of Repreſentatives of Maſſachuſetts-Bay, and Sir Francis Bernard, Governor of that province.

The Abbe Grizat was committed to the Baſtile at Paris, a few days ſince, by virtue of a letter de cachet, and all his papers were ſeized. It is ſaid his offence was for expreſſing, in a coffee-houſe, his approbation of the ſpirited proceedings of the Engliſh freeholders, and wiſhing that other nations would imitate their example.

MARCH 30. Yeſterday a grand council was held at St. James's, at which all the great officers of ſtate aſſiſted, when it is ſaid, the contents of the Weſtminſter Remonſtrance was taken under conſideration.

On Wedneſday, after the preſentation of the Remonſtrance of the city of Weſtminſter, a proteſt was handed about to be ſigned by the electors.

It is ſaid that the Cumberland and Durham petitions will be preſented this day to his Majeſty.

It is reported, that proſecutions are to be commenced againſt the authors, printers, or publiſhers, of a new political paper.

Mr. Wilkes the unſhaken patriot of England, is in the higheſt ſpirits; nor are his friends leſs ſo, who mean to appear brighter upon his delivery from oppreſſion, tyranny, and cruelty, than any luminaries ſince the burning of Perſepolis.

The whigs begin to ſee, truly, the true friends of England's conſtitution---they diſcover the cloven foot of the tories. This is an adminiſtration of tories! and as contradictory to the intereſt of Britain,---as the Stamp-Act was to the welfare of America.

Lord Granby is now ſo firm to the whig party, that he ſees plainly this tory junto mean to ruin that country he will die to ſave.

A correſpondent obſerves, that notwithſtanding the addreſs of a majority of the Lords and Commons (conſiſting, melancholy truth! principally, however, of Courtiers, Penſioners, and Placemen) lately preſented to the King, complaining of and cenſuring the ſpirited and conſtitutional Remonſtrance and Petition, of the loyal, reſpectable, and numerous Livery of London; we may be aſſured, that moſt, if not all the counties and places which have already petitioned for a redreſs of grievances, ſo far from being intimidated by any reſolutions hitherto paſſed, or that may be paſſed, are determined, like Engliſhmen, to aſſert fully the right given them by the glorious Bill of Rights, and confirmed by a ſolemn reſolution of the Houſe of Commons, which is, that of ſafely, freely, and boldly remonſtrating and petitioning the throne; not doubting, from the acknowledged virtues, juſtice, and goodneſs of heart of their Sovereign, a relief proportioned to the magnitude of their ſeveral grievances and complaints.

It is certain the miniſterial party are now exerting their influence with uncommon vigour, to oppoſe the intended remonſtrance from the county of Middleſex.

MARCH 31. Yeſterday a great number of the freeholders of Middleſex attended at the Mile-end aſſembly-room, when the Rev. Dr. Wilſon was voted to the chair. The Rev. Mr. Horne ſpoke an hour and an half and produced a Remonſtrance, which was unanimouſly agreed to, but the time of preſenting it left to the ſheriff.

The foreign Gazettes arrived this day ſay, that the Ruſſians have been defeated before Bender by the Ottomans.

APRIL 3. The diſpatches juſt received from Mr. Murray, our ambaſſador at Conſtantinople, are of the laſt importance to our commerce with the Turks.

The Empreſs of Ruſſia's agents in London, have received orders to contract for forty ſail of Britiſh ſhips, from 300 tons and upwards, to ſerve as tranſports. Fourteen ſail were taken up laſt week, and more are engaging as faſt as poſſible. The terms are the ſame as were given by our government laſt war.

APRIL 4. The marquis of Granby being at St. James's laſt thurſday, which was no more than a common levee day, has given much offence to the oppoſition.

It is ſaid a Great Perſonage has deſired a conference with lord Camden; and the report is, that his lordſhip will be re-inſtated.

It is reported that the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick has accepted a commiſſion in the French king's ſervice.

It is confidently ſaid that a coalition is in agitation, and will now ſpeedily take place.

APRIL 5. They write from Gallipoli, that twenty ſail of Turkiſh men of war are now riding near the mouth of the Helleſpont to diſpute the paſſage of the Ruſſian fleet.

The court of Madrid has ordered ſeveral companies of infantry to hold themſelves in readineſs for Africa, the Moors not diſheartened with the bad ſucceſs of their enterprize againſt Oran, being determined again to attack the Spaniards in thoſe parts.

The miniſtry now ſpeak of a war as a matter that may probably ariſe from the junction of our fleet with that of Ruſſia, in oppoſition to the French ſuccouring the Turks.

An Ambaſſador is daily expected here from the Grand Signior.

The miniſterial meaſure of ſurrounding the metropolis with large military encampments, with the late orders ſent to Scotland for the troops to be ready at a moment's watning, has given occaſion for more alarming apprehenſions than any hitherto.

Edward Thurlow, Eſq; is appointed Auditor of Greenwich Hoſpital, in the room of Richard Huſſey, Eſq; reſigned.

The French Ambaſſador at Conſtantinople labours inceſſantly to perſuade the Grand Signior that it is entirely owing to the aſſiſtance of Great-Britain that the Ruſſian fleet has been able to penetrate ſo early into the Mediterranean, and that their future ſucceſs will entirely depend on the farther ſuccours they may receive from this nation.

Yeſterday Mr. de Berdt and Colonel Barré, joint agents for the colonies, received ſome intereſting inſtructions from their American conſtituents.

APRIL 6. We are informed orders have been ſent to the commiſſioners of Portſmouth yard to get ready a fleet of ſeven ſail of the line beſides frigates, with all expedition, the command of which, it is reported, will be given to Sir George Pococke.

Yeſterday the court was the moſt numerous and brilliant of any drawing room for many years, except on their Majeſty's birth days.

That a war is ſeriouſly talked of at court, and expected ſoon to happen, may be depended on.

It is ſaid both Houſes of Parliament will adjourn on Tueſday next for the Eaſter Holidays, and meet again the 23d inſtant; and it is expected the Parliament will be prorogued about the 10th of May.

We can aſſure the public that the report of a change in the miniſtry is without any foundation.

MANCHESTER, March 19. The public may be assured, that the manufacturers in this Kingdom, are not in the least benefited from the late vote of parliament, to repeal all the late American Imposts, save that on tea, the exclusion of that single article, subjecting them to the same inconvenience as if the whole were continued; their orders from America being absolutely expressive, not to ship one ounce of goods, unless the whole of those acts are repealed. This town and neighbourhood already feel the severe stroke, having conditional orders countermanded the amount of at least one hundred and thirty thousand pounds, the greatest part of which sum, in manufactures, now lies dormant in their warehouses, ready to be packed up, and some have large quantities ready cased for shipping. What will be the consequence God only knows! But this may be said with propriety, that if some healing remedy be not soon applied, the trading part of this once flourishing place will shortly experience a fate more terrible in its consequence, than the late Stamp-Act would have entailed on them, had that tax not been repealed.

EDINBURGH, March 23. A report prevails here, that orders are come from the War-office, for his Majesty's troops now in Scotland, to hold themselves in readiness to march on a short warning, but we have not heard what route they are to take.

DANTZICK, February 24. Though letters have been received here, that Prince Gallitzin had entirely dispersed the Confederates some miles from Warsaw; yet other accounts declare, that the Confederates, to the amount of 3000, having marched towards that capital, the Russians advanced to attack them, and engaged with 1800 of them near the village of Terpilow, but were obliged to retreat to Gnatowie, which they burnt, with several other villages, and continued retiring, till they took shelter in the church and house of the regular Canons at Blonia, which the Confederates attacked with two pieces of artillery. On this the Muscovites sallied out sword in hand, in order to cut their way through the enemy, but the greatest part of them perished in the attempt.

PARIS, March 16. By letters from Spain, we hear, that the Abbe Chappe, who was sent to the South Sea to observe the passage of Venus over the disk of the sun, had been attacked on his return to California, by an epidemical inflammatory disorder, of which he died at the village of St. Joseph, near Cape St. Luke. All those who accompanied him perished in the same manner, except one who lay at the point of death when the account came away. Messrs. Doz and Medina, who went to make the same observation, were seized with the above fatal malady. M. Medina is dead, and there is reason to fear M. Doz has met with the same fate. It is uncertain whether their papers have been preserved.

WARSAW, March 7. A courier is just arrived with the news of a considerable advantage which General Stoffeln has again obtained over the Turks. The new Grand Vizir, being ordered to do all in his power to make the Russians retire from Walachia and Moldavia, and understanding General Stoffeln had taken the route of Brailow, dispatched 20,000 men, who passed the Danube at Silistra, in order to attack Bucharest, the capital of Walachia; but General Stoffeln, informed of these motions, removed from Brailow, marched towards Dziurgown, to wait for the enemy, who arrived soon after, and attacked the Russians with great spirit, but without success, for Major Potemkin falling upon the enemy in flank, they were totally defeated. Their loss in killed and wounded amounts to 3000 men; 1500 were made prisoners, and the greatest part of their cannon, baggage, &c. has fallen into the hands of the conquerors.

FRONTIERS OF POLAND, March 9. The Turks are still in possession of the castle of Brailow; however, as they are in want of provisions, and as the Russians have defeated all the troops that have been sent to succour that garrison, it is not doubted that they will be obliged soon to give it up, either by abandoning it, or surrendering themselves prisoners.

FROM THE MORNING CHRONICLE, FEBRUARY 2.

The following is a copy of a letter to a certain Great Personage, upon a late resignation; which was handed about in a very select company, as authentic. As such I send it to you; and indeed have every reason myself to believe that it came from unquestionable authority.

SIR,

IT is with the greatest distress of mind, that I find myself in a situation, which reduces me to the necessity, in ease of my conscience, to inform your M-----y, that my strenuous endeavours to promote the service of your C----n, and Government, in the which I have the cordial satisfaction to reflect, Sir, I have ever conducted myself with zeal and fidelity, can no longer prevail. The influence, which your M-----y well knows, every responsible M----r of this country must possess in the C---t, has of late, through the intrigue of some individuals, whose views are centered in the gratification of self interest, superseded my warmest inclinations, to adopt such lenient and healing measures, upon true constitutional principles, which I apprehend are very conducive to the restoration of public peace and tranquility, without derogating from the honour and dignity of your C----n. I have for some time, Sir, submitted to plans of G--------t, of which my own judgment did not wholly approve, because I was unwilling to disturb that harmony in your C------ls, which alone can give permanency and stability to any A-------n. But when characters, which are deservedly the objects of the public hatred and contempt, are obtruded upon me, to fill the most exalted departments of S---te; I can no longer bear the abject degradation, of being harrassed with such men, whose morals every honest m------- must detest, and whose notorious prostitution of principles, the most abandoned m------- must hold in everlasting contempt!

These, Sir, are the sole and prevalent motives, which actuate me at this moment to request your M-----y's most gracious acceptance of my VOLUNTARY resignation; which no intimidation whatever, from the fictious clamours of a deluded people, I must sincerely assure your M------y, would ever have effected. The people, Sir, are to be pitied, more than blamed; led, as they are by some ill designing men, who, under the cloak of Liberty, have let in upon this land an inundation of licentiousness; their case deserves a favourable interpretation, and attention from your M------y's G---------t.

I shall not trouble your M------y any farther, than to return you my most grateful acknowledgements for that confidence and distinction, with which you have honoured me, by an appointment to the most honorary post in your M------y's A--------n.

That your M-----y's G---------t may prove at all times honourable and successful, and that your S-----ts may be made happy, by the wisdom and discretion of every succeeding Minister, is the most fervent prayer of

Your M------y's
Most faithful servant,
G------N.

BOSTON, APRIL 30.

THE merchants and inhabitants of this metropolis have again discovered their unalterable resolution to support the non-importation agreement against all opposition of tyrants and their minions. It must be observed to the honour of our brethren the merchants in the southern governments, that in consequence of their orders to the masters of their vessels in London, not to receive British goods until the revenue acts should be totally repealed, their vessels have returned this spring, as we are well informed, without any articles but such as were excepted in the agreement. The like orders were given by many of the merchants here; but the ship-masters were so unguarded as to take on board goods without discrimination, upon its being said, that the House of Commons had ordered a bill for a partial repeal. It appears that the generality of the merchants have punctually adhered to the agreement, to the grief and vexation of the enemies of America on both sides of the Atlantic; who must be convinced that such a noble perseverance in the cause of public liberty, will soon baffle all their arts and machinations to enslave and ruin us and our posterity. A few persons have however imported the poison, upon which important occasion the body of the people, together with the worthy and well disposed merchants, again met in Faneuil-Hall, were such spirited measures were taken, as the necessity of the times required; which brought the importers to a due reflection on their own mistaken conduct, and a free consent under their hands to re-ship all their goods for London immediately. Mr. Hancock was so nobly generous and disinterested as to offer his ship to carry these goods freight free; a favour which the importers of them certainly could not have the least reason to expect. The goods are now shipping accordingly on board Capt. Scott, who will sail wind and weather permitting this week. A quantity of tea was imported in these vessels, which it is said cannot be re-shipped, but upon what grounds we cannot pretend to say. The tea is housed for some particular and pretty apparent reasons, in the cellar of the custom-house. The owners have promised it shall remain there unsold till-----, but this was unanimously voted by the body, last Saturday, to be by no means satisfactory.

It is reported by some persons in town, that the Hon. Thomas Flucker, Esq; will be advanced to the dignity of Lieutenant-Governor, in the room of the Hon. Thomas Hutchinson, Esq. Others say that the Hon. Andrew Oliver, Esq; will be appointed to that place, and that Mr. Flucker will succeed him as secretary of this province.

MAY 7. We have the pleasure to assure the public, that James Otis, Esq; has received great benefit from his tour to the country, and that there is the most agreeable prospect of his recovering his health, which must afford particular satisfaction to all the friends of America.

At the meeting of the body of the trade and others in Faneuil-Hall, on Saturday last, a letter was sent in by one of the importers, offering to set up two ships in town, if his goods might be sold; but the public spirited tradesmen rejected it with contempt, alledging that they chose rather to be put out of business, than have it at the expence or risk of their country.

The Mermaid man of war is daily expected here from Halifax.

On the 7th ult. his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor sent a message to the House of Representatives, relating to a riotous proceeding in the town of Gloucester. On the 24th ult. the House sent an answer to the message. On Thursday the 26th ult. his Honour was pleased to direct the Secretary of the province to read to the House, in their own chamber, a message in reply, a copy of which the Secretary laid on the table, and by order of his Honour, he declared the Great and General Court to be dissolved. His Majesty's writ is issued for calling the General Assembly to be holden at Cambridge, on Wednesday the 30th Instant.

NEWBERN, (in North-Carolina) APRIL 6.

On Wednesday Evening last, after a very lingering and painful Illness, departed this Life, in the early Part of the Prime of it, Major Thomas Clifford Howe, of this County; and this Day his Remains were interred with great Decency, in the Family Vault on his Plantation near this Town. He was descended from an ancient and respectable Family in the Southern Part of this Province, and, during his Residence in this County, has, with much Honour to himself, represented it in Assembly, and discharged other Offices of public Trust conferred on him by the Government. If a constant Course of Openness of Heart and polite Behaviour, added to good Sense, innate good Nature, and universal Civility, form the Gentleman, he was truly intitled to that Character. In domestic Life, a Tenderness of Heart and indulgent Fondness proclaimed him the good Husband, the tender Parent, and the kind Master: And in Society, a useful Member, a true Friend and good Companion; his convival Hours being cheerful and entertaining. He was perfectly sensible to the last; patiently waited the lingering Approaches of Death, and willingly resigned his Soul into the Hands of a merciful God, in sure and certain Hopes of a joyful Resurrection at the last Day, and a blessed Immortality in the World to come.

APRIL 13. This evening, a person walking along the street in this town, was struck with lightning, and instantaneously killed. He received the stroke on his head, which singed his hair, ran down his neck, and breast, and melted the buckles in his knees and shoes. The thunder was severe for this early season of the year, as we had frost on the ground but a few mornings before.

SAVANNAH, (in Georgia) MAY 16.

Thursday last embarked on board the Snow Britannia, (now wind bound at Cockspur) Capt. Stephen Dean, bound to London, the Hon. Grey Elliott, Esq; and his Lady, Mrs. Vincent, and Mr. and Mrs. Dixon, from the Orphan-House Bethesda Academy.

CHARLES-TOWN, MAY 22.

The following is an exact Copy of a circular Letter sent by the General Committee of this Province, to the respective Committees in the Northern Colonies, and which was read to the Inhabitants assembled under Liberty-Tree, on Monday the 14th Instant, and by them ordered to be made public.

GENTLEMEN,

AN authentic Account of a Bill ordered to be brought into the House of Commons, to repeal so much of an Act of the 7th of his present Majesty, as imposes a Duty on Paper, Glass, and Painters Colours, imported into the British Colonies in America, occasions this Address to you.

It is with the deepest Grief, we observe the Oppression of America so little regarded, as, that Duties on a few Articles, more ruinous in their Precedent, than fatal in their present Operations, should become the serious Objects of parliamentary Attention, while the grand Evils, which affect the Life and Soul of American Happiness, are totally disregarded.

When the Resolutions were formed (surrounded with Difficulties as we were) on the only Plan we had left for the Recovery of our antient Liberties (and which, we are convinced, will ultimately have their desired Effect, if we have but Virtue enough to resist the Allurements of present Gain, in favour of the inestimable Blessings of our envied Constitution) for want of a Communication with each other, the Colonies adopted Plans various in Extent of Matter, and Limitations of Time. This Province, as it was among the last, so it has been the most comprehensive; and well considering, that Liberty in Retail, is but another Term for Slavery, they have included every Object which tends to sap the Foundation of their Freedom.

While we are commanded to make Provision for a standing Army quartered amongst us in Time of Peace, with the apparent Design of awing us into slavish Submissions; while the Board of Commissioners are permitted to riot with such an Extent of unrelenting Power; while our Property is subject to be dragged from Colony to Colony, under the Controul of an oppressive Admiralty; we are not free. And while these Acts continue in Force, we are chained down by our Resolutions: Such is our present Situation, in which we Glory. The Day of Trial is but approaching; Unanimity is absolutely necessary; and we are positive, nothing but an Exertion of the purest Virtue, in the Prosecution of one generally adopted Plan, can possibly revive our expiring Constitution.

Should any of our Sister-Colonies take an Advantage of the Repeal of these trifling Duties, we think it had been infinitely better, to have submitted quietly to the Yoke, than to have discovered the deepest Knowledge of our Constitution, and a most ardent Desire of preserving it. Yet, while a Variety of Circumstances combine to ensure our Success, it would be highly dishonourable to sink into a slavish Inactivity; when a spirited and steady Conduct can alone crown our Hopes.

The People of this Province have bound themselves, in the general Cause of American Liberty, by extending their Resolutions, until the Whole of their Complaints is removed. It would be a capital Crime in us, to suspect the public Virtue of our Countrymen; nor can we even suppose, in the most direful Manner, this Province will fall a Sacrifice to the Purity of her Intentions. The Security of our inherent injured Rights, was the Foundation of our Agreements: Until that Security is amply obtained, nothing can be said to be done.

The principal Arguments in the House of Commons, were founded on the Division of the Colonies; the Impracticability of Manufacturing; and the Impossibility of continuing firm in our Non-Importation. Let us convince them of our Unanimity, and the Falsity of those dishonourable Reports, which declare any Breach of Consequence in our sacred Engagements; and we may be certain of Success.----That Individuals will be found in every Colony, who (dead to all the warm Emotions of the Heart) even when Liberty is at Stake, will sacrifice the only Blessings which make Life comfortable, to the dirty Consideration of present Emolument, is nothing extraordinary: Worthless Men are the Produce of every Climate; they serve only as a Foil to set off the Cause; and unless we become Traitors to our own Liberties, we have little to fear.

Our Countrymen in Great-Britain are equally engaged in the Defence of the Constitution. Surrounded on all Sides with the Minions of Government, the best Men in the Nation have pledged themselves for its Defence. These Patriots are equally the Objects of our Admiration and Imitation. And as our Blood and our Rights flow equally from the same Source, we should scandalize the rough unremitting Virtue of our Ancestors, did we not follow their Example.

Let us suppose the worst that can befall us;---that the Iron Hand of Power will at last prevail, and trample upon every Right of American Liberty; yet we think it an indispensable Duty, which we owe to our Country and Descendants, inflexibly to persevere to the last, and let Posterity record, Force obtained a Triumph over public Virtue; and though we fell, we fell with a Dignity and Spirit becoming the Sons of Great-Britain. We are, your most affectionate Countrymen.

Charles-Town, South-Carolina, April 25, 1770.

By Advices from England, we learn that the Bounty on Indico, which would have expired this Season, is to be continued for Seven Years longer; and that the Duty on Rice will be lowered next Session of Parliament.

Mr. CROUCH,

Your inserting the following Lines in your Gazette, will oblige A CONSTANT READER.

T. K. were he to change his Life,
Describes the Girl, he'd take to Wife;
But, He and I cannot agree;
Externals ne'er will Fetter me.
Let solid Sense inform her Mind,
With Strength of Judgment sweetly join'd;
Let her Humane, and Gen'rous be,
If, Heav'n designs a Girl for me:
For, MUSIC, WIT, and SHAPE quite neat,
My Happiness cannot compleat:
Nor PRUDENCE, with OECONOMY join'd;
Without Solidity of Mind.
